— A Message From Our CEO —

Anna
Anufrikova

"Northstar Strategy Group's mission is to build meaningful partnerships between communities, organisations, and institutions across Southeast Asia and Europe. We believe that collaboration is the foundation of sustainable development.

We recognise that many organisations across Southeast Asia are seeking to expand their partnerships, capacity, and reach, while just as many of our European partners are seeking meaningful engagement with the region.

Northstar exists to facilitate these connections, because we believe that partnership, built on listening and shared purpose, creates value for everyone involved.

Southeast Asia is a region of extraordinary talent, resilience, and opportunity. It is home to communities and institutions doing vital work every day. We are honoured to support that work, and we approach engagement with humility, respect, and a commitment to people.

We value integrity in this work, and we are committed to building our partnerships in a way that respects the dignity, agency, and expertise of everyone we engage with."

Preamble

Privacy is one of Northstar's highest priorities. We believe that privacy fosters the kind of creativity and growth that will allow us to pursue our international projects efficiently and effectively.

Northstar is committed to handling personal data responsibly and in accordance with applicable data protection law, including the EU Regulation 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation)

We review and update this policy periodically to reflect changes in our practices or in applicable law.

Who We are

Northstar Strategy Group s.r.o. ("Northstar", "we", "us", "our") is a company registered in the Czech Republic, with its registered office at Poděbradská 1067/7, 190 00, Prague, Czech Republic. We are registered with the Czech Chamber of Commerce as an s.r.o.

Our IČO is 300 45 991.

For data protection purposes, we act as the controller of the personal data described in this notice, unless stated otherwise for a specific engagement.

! Our data protection contact is Eric Vadan, reachable at:

eric.vadan@northstar-sg.com

Purpose and Scope

This notice explains how we collect, use, share, and protect personal data across our work, including advisory and consulting engagements, partnerships and collaborations, programme or placement administration, fundraising-related activity, and our website and general communications. It applies to anyone whose personal data we process in the course of this work: clients, partners, applicants or participants, donors, stakeholders, and members of the public who contact us.

What Personal Data We Collect

The personal data we collect depends on the nature of our relationship with you. In general, this may include:

- ▶ Identification and contact details: name, email address, phone number, postal address, and, where relevant to an engagement, identity documents.
 - ▶ Professional and organisational details: job title, employer or affiliated organisation, and correspondence relating to our work together.
 - ▶ Engagement-specific data: information provided to us in the course of an advisory, placement, partnership, or fundraising engagement, which varies by area of work and is described further at the point of collection.
 - ▶ Special category data: in limited circumstances, and only with explicit consent or another valid legal basis, data such as health information, dietary requirements, or information revealing ethnicity, where directly relevant to safety, safeguarding, or the specific purpose of an engagement.
 - ! Further information on special category data may be found in GDPR Article 9(1)
 - ▶ Data not from subject: Where we identify and research potential institutional or corporate donor contacts as part of our fundraising work, we may collect professional contact details (e.g. name, job title, and email) from publicly available sources, professional networking platforms, or from our partners, rather than from the individual directly. We process this data as described in this notice, and individuals contacted in this way may exercise the rights set out herein.

How We Use Your Data, And Our Legal Basis

We only use personal data where we have a valid legal basis to do so. The table below sets out our general purposes; specific engagements may involve additional purposes, which will be described at the point of collection.

Purpose	Typical Legal Basis
Delivering a signed engagement, contract, or partnership	Performance of a contract
Assessing and administering applications, placements, or programme participation	Necessary for the performance of a contract
Processing special category data within an application or placement	Explicit consent
Responding to enquiries and general communications	Legitimate interest
Managing donor and fundraising relationships	Contract, legitimate interest, or consent, as applicable
Meeting legal, safeguarding, or regulatory obligations	Legal obligation

- ! Further information can be found in GDPR Article 6(1)
- ! We do not carry out automated decision-making, including profiling, that produces legal or other effects on individuals.

Whether You Must Provide Your Data

In most cases, providing personal data to us is voluntary. However, for certain purposes, providing specific information is necessary for us to proceed with a particular arrangement. Examples include:

- ▶ Entering into or performing a contract or engagement: This may include freelance, partnership, or client agreements.
 - ▶ Assessing an application or placement: This may include an internship or employment application.
 - ▶ Meeting legal, safeguarding, or regulatory obligations: Providing certain information may be required by law or by a partner organisation's requirements.
 - ! Without certain data requested as mandatory, we may be unable to proceed with the corresponding engagement. Northstar will always let you know when the requested data is mandatory, any further information you provide will be considered mandatory. We will always make you aware of the possible consequences of the failure to provide mandatory data.

Special Category Data

Where an engagement requires us to collect special category data, such as health information for safety purposes, or data that may reveal ethnicity in the course of stakeholder or community-related work, we collect this only where it is necessary for the specific purpose, and we obtain explicit consent before doing so, unless another legal condition applies and is documented for that engagement.

Who We Share Your Data With

We share personal data only where necessary to deliver our work, and always under written agreements that require appropriate protection. Depending on the engagement, this may include:

- ▶ Partner organisations, institutions, or collaborators involved in the same engagement
- ▶ Professional advisers, such as legal or financial counsel
- ▶ Service providers who support our operations, such as hosting, IT, or payment providers
- ▶ Regulators, authorities, or other parties where required by law

- ▶ We do not sell personal data, and we do not share it for unrelated marketing purposes without separate consent.

International Transfers

As a company established in the European Union, we apply GDPR as our standard. Where personal data is transferred outside the European Economic Area, for example to a partner, contractor, or service provider located elsewhere, we put an appropriate safeguard in place before the transfer, such as the European Commission's Standard Contractual Clauses, or reliance on an adequacy decision where one applies.

How Long We Keep Your Data

We keep personal data only for as long as necessary for the purpose it was collected for, taking into account legal, contractual, and accountability requirements. Specific retention periods vary by category of data and are set out in our internal retention schedule, available on request from eric.vadan@northstar-sg.com.

Your Rights

Under GDPR, you have the right to access the personal data we hold about you, correct it if inaccurate, request its deletion, restrict or object to certain processing, and request a portable copy in certain circumstances. You also have the right to withdraw consent at any time.

To exercise any of these rights, contact eric.vadan@northstar-sg.com. We will respond within one month, or explain if we need longer for a complex request.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority. In the Czech Republic, this is the Office for Personal Data Protection (Úřad pro ochranu osobních údajů, ÚOOÚ). You may also complain to the supervisory authority in your own country of residence.

Cookies And Website Data

Our website does not currently use cookies. If this changes, we will update this notice and provide a separate Cookie Notice.

Security

We apply appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect personal data against unauthorised access, loss, or misuse, proportionate to the sensitivity of the data involved. These measures are reviewed periodically and adjusted as our work evolves.

Minors' Data

Where an engagement involves participants under the age of 18, we apply additional safeguards, including seeking consent from a parent or guardian where appropriate, and limiting data collection to what is strictly necessary for safety and administration.

Changes to This Notice

We may update this notice from time to time, for example as our work evolves or as required by law. Material changes will always be communicated where appropriate.
